TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. Flora Richardson of Waitsfield is passing a few days with friends in this city.

The only letter advertised at the postoffice for the week ending Oct. 26 is one addressed to Ivar Markkola of this city.

Maurice Watkins of East street left yesterday afternoon for Boston, where he will attend the Harvard-Dartmouth game.

The first signs of Christmas were prominent in the vicinity of East Montpelier yesterday, where several carloads of selected Christmas trees were being loaded for shipment to the larger cities. These trees have of late become counted upon by rural residents as a source of revenue and each year more trees are being cut.
